

PLEASE do not allow them to start calling us, for once think about the consumer and not large companies. Why do they have the right to call us in our homes and bother us, take away from our family time. This is very unfair to us, give us the peace we want in our homes.